DESCRIPTION

Velour leather sandals. Extremely light, made with breathable components, they provide comfort all day long. ATF technology used in the footwear production process guarantees long-lasting freshness as well as antibacterial and antifungal protection. The perfect combination of protective elements with high-class materials allowed to create footwear with a sporty design while also guaranteeing protection and comfort for feet at the same time. Thanks to this, ACTIVO sandals are suitable for many working environments. Available in S1, S1P and ESD versions.
